Parquet Courts

What could I even say to you Rene?

If I could stop reacting then I'd be acting like your fool beca use

What could I even say to you Rene?

I could follow you but then you'd never see me right behind you

I could meditate and sleep all day but I'd never know what the first step to take was
What could I even say to you Rene?

I went to a shrink and he found my brain And I have no ideas is what he found I went to a shrink and he found my brain And I have no ideas is what he found No ideas is what he found No ideas
