

Hotter

Parralox

You're just what im looking for
I just wish you looked a little bit hotter
We could be so perfect together
What a shame you aren't a little bit hotter

What a shame
We didnt meet like this before
I'm waiting for
The one next door

Think twice we're all the same in different ways
But sometimes it pays
To go your separate ways

You're just what im looking for
I just wish you looked a little bit hotter
We could be so perfect together
What a shame you arent a little bit hotter

So much time
It passes by from day to day
But it's okay
Just look the other way
