

Oh Love

Parson James

There's a girl in Nebraska
And her dad is a pastor
I don't know her but it feels like I do
On her knees every Sunday
Guilty prayer maybe one day
Have a wife, two kids, and a pool

She's like me
She's like you
She's been lost
I've been there too
She thinks big
They think small
It's easy to get used to it

Oh love, oh love
I'm not the only one
Feeling like I ain't got
No love, oh love
I swear there's enough of us
In this world to change it
Oh love, oh love
Oh love
Oh love, oh love
I swear there's enough of us
In this world to change it

And sometimes we forget it
It's a big crazy planet
There's a light in the spaces between
We get lost in the bubble
On the coast it's no trouble
Who you love and who you wanna be

Crying eyes
Dying youth
More than one
More than two
Hard to know
Where to start
But I've gotta do something
Oh-whoa!

Oh love, oh love
I'm not the only one
Feeling like I ain't got
No love, oh love
I swear there's enough of us
In this world to change it
Oh love, oh love
Oh love
Oh love, oh love
I swear there's enough of us
In this world to change it

Together not alone
We're never on our own

Together not alone
We're never on our own
Together not alone
We're never on our own
Together not alone

Oh love, oh love
I'm not the only one
Feeling like I ain't got
No love, oh love
I swear there's enough of us
In this world to change it
Oh love, oh love
Oh love
Oh love, oh love
I swear there's enough of us
In this world to change it
