

Call me from the condo, I'm picking you up
You and I know, I know you deserve it
If I brought your birthday, you turn it up (Oh, yeah, oh, yeah)
Last week, you gave me the sickest threesome (Oh yeah)
This week, you gave me the sickest head
Last night, you tried to blow my mind (Ooh, yeah)
And tonight, you tried to do it again, oh, woah

My best friend, my shawty
Oh, woah
Hey, your mind and your body is outta control
The fuck was they thinking? You on a roll
You hit the splits and get naked, girl, you're honor roll
You payin' the rent these days and the groceries, woah
Luckily, I got rich after that
Luckily, you stole my bitch after that
Luckily, you went platinum like plaques

And tonight, you tried to do it again, oh, woah

Your mind and your body is outta control (Yeah)
The fuck was they thinking? You vulnerable, yeah (Okay)
You got them Liz Taylor diamonds and a heart of gold (Yeah)
You got that big ol' crib now and the sign says so (Ayy)
We're face to face in the crowd
Laughin' over shots, people eyein' us down
Same night, word is goin' 'round town
That kind of word can really get around
That can make a lost love come unfound
Your ex needs to turn that frown upside down
Smile and keep it pushin' before it goes south
Can you come home with me tonight, are you allowed?
I know you got the kids at the house
Pay the nanny double and come roll with the owl
You'll be back in time to make 'em breakfast, no doubt
Just stay the night with me, get nasty
