

Begging For It

Passafire

We wrote our names on a wave in the ocean
And watched the moon pull them far away
Now we're alone as our bodies break open
Unspoken, there's nothing left to say
Here comes the morning
It's taking it all away again
Away again
And watch it go
And I'm begging for it
And I'm begging for it now
Can you blame me for it?
And I'm begging for it now
We wait around as the sun gets drowned
Sinking deep into your chest
Time slows down, I spin you on the ground
Pirouette and arabesque

Turning deep below
In your undertow
And you always know
How to keep me close
But I'm floating away again, again
Don't let me go
And I'm begging for it
Cause I'm begging for it now
Am I better for it?
And I'm begging for it
Now it's gone
The more I hold it in
Makes it slip away again
It's either enough or too much
And I'm losing touch
I'm letting go
And I'm begging for it
Got me begging for it now
Am I better for it?
Got me begging for it now
