

Ghosts

Passenger

Our love is gone
Our hearts are bruised
And letting go is the only choice to choose
Though I still see you in the fading light
Hear your name when the rain falls
And feel you in the deepest dark

I can't keep holding on
To the ghost of you
If you let go darling
Then I'll let go too

The current's strong
And the wind is too
And letting go is the only thing to do
We'll always live in photographs
Where we'll stay forever young
In a parallel universe

But you can't keep holding on
To the ghost of me
We'll both let go darling
On the count of three

La ra ra ra ra di da
Lai lai da, da ra

Oh we can't keep holding on
To these ghosts you know
We'll be haunted darling 'til we both let go
'Til we both let go
