

Only Time

Passenger

Another shade of grey
Another rolled up sleeve
Another Christmas Day
Another New Year's eve
But one year must end
For another to start
And only time
Can unbreak your heart

Another boat rolls in Another tide rolls out
Another stranger looking in Another lover looking out
One love must die
For another to start
And only time
Can unbreak your heart

So when hope is gone
And light turns to dark
Remember that time
Can unbreak your heart
I promise you time
Will unbreak your heart
