

Remember To Forget

Passenger

Well, I'm an over thinker
A daydreamer
A heavy drinker
An in betweener
Propping up the bar, like it's gonna fall down

I'm a shit talker
A bad joker
A Johnnie Walker
A chain smoker
Everyone knows it all over town

And I know we've just met
And you don't know my deal yet
But, I wondered if you would

Help me remember to forget
'Cause I, I don't wanna wake up yet
Stay with me through the night
Until the morning light
Help me remember to forget
Yeah

'Cause I'm a future gazer
A past dweller
And I've always been a story teller
But, no one's listening anymore

And I'm a late comer
A last chancer
A slow runner and a final dancer
You see me glide across the floor

And I know it sounds strange
And I've got nothing to exchange
But, I wondered if you could

Help me remember to forget
'Cause I, I don't wanna wake up yet
Stay with me through the night
Until the morning light
Help me remember to forget
Yeah

So help me remember to forget
'Cause I, I don't wanna wake up yet
Stay with me through the night
Until the morning light
