

Sandstorm

Passenger

Crash land out in the desert
Picking through the wreckage
With shaking hands

Ash and embers still burning
Propeller still turning
Churning the sand

Lover oh my lover
I know I'm not easy to understand
Cover darling take cover
For I am the sand storm
And you are the sand

Last night is pain in hindsight
Like a drunk in a bar fight
Ashamed and alone

You're like a fox in the headlights
Running out through the dark night
Silent as stone

Lover oh my lover
I know I'm not easy to understand
Cover darling take cover
For I am the sand storm
And you are the sand

Lover oh my lover
I know I'm not easy to understand
Cover darling take cover
For I am the sand storm
And you are the sand
