

Lightning

Pat Barrett

Thinking of a day
Won't see a face on another T-shirt
I know it's bad, but it hurts

Same day, new face
Old pain, rerun
Headline, heartbreak

Pray to God that peace will find me
Peace, find me
Pray to God that He falls like lightning
Pray to God that He falls like lightning

Silence from the ones who know better
Quiet is the riot of the oppressor
Devil's plan is we hate each other
Even better if we say nothing

Same day, new face
Old pain, rerun
Headline, heartbreak

Pray to God that peace will find me
Peace, find me
Pray to God that He falls like lightning
Pray to God that He falls like lightning

One day all things will be the way it should be
And one day all things will be the way it should be
And one day all things will be the way it should be
And one day all things will be the way it should be

Pray to God that He falls like lightning
