

No Weapon

Pat Barrett

When darkness closes in on every side
When battles rage and when the waters rise
I fear no evil for I know the truth
Nothing can separate my heart from You

'Cause there's no weapon stronger than Your love
There's no weapon stronger than Your love
No height, no depth can overcome
'Cause there's no weapon stronger than Your love

You say that faith can make the mountain move
And nothing is impossible for You
I fear no evil for I know the truth
Nothing can separate my heart from You

'Cause there's no weapon stronger than Your love
There's no weapon stronger than Your love
No height, no depth can overcome
'Cause there's no weapon stronger than Your love

A mighty fortress
A shield around me
The power of heaven in Your mighty hand

You go before me
You won my victory
And in this promise I forever stand

Oh, in Your promise
You will never leave us
Oh, You won't forsake us
Oh, You are always with us

Oh, and there's no weapon stronger than Your love
There's no weapon stronger than Your love
No height (Height), no depth (Depth) can overcome
'Cause there's no weapon stronger than Your love
Oh, there's no weapon stronger than Your love
