

So Real

Pat Barrett

Dress it up with neon lights
Feels like something isn't right
What if me is all You want
And picture perfect's overdone

I'm holding out for something
So real
So real
So true

Sing as loud as lungs can bare
Hands like rockets in the air
I don't like quiet cause I'm scared
What if I can't find You there

I'm holding out for something
So real
So real
So true
I'm holding out for something
So real
So real
Just You

What if me is all You want
And picture perfect's overdone
I was swept up in a lie
'Cause true religion's camera shy

I'm holding out for something
So real
So real
So true
I'm holding out for something
So real
So real
Just You
