

Trust You In All Things

Pat Barrett

I've heard Your voice calm the storm
With just a word and nothing more
I've seen Your hands work miracles
Do things I thought weren't possible

Oh how sweet to trust You Jesus
Just to take You at Your word
Throw my life upon Your promise
You won't fail I know for sure

I've seen You set the captive free
And You have done the same for me
I've seen the lengths You go to save
How great Your love, how deep Your grace

Oh how sweet to trust You Jesus
Just to take You at Your word
Throw my life upon Your promise
You won't fail I know for sure

Every blessing, every pain
On the mountain, in the waves
You are with me all the way
I trust You in all things
I trust You in all things

Every blessing, every pain
On the mountain, in the waves
You are with me all the way
I trust You in all things
I trust You in all things

Oh how sweet to trust You Jesus
Just to take You at Your word
Throw my life upon Your promise
You won't fail I know for sure

You won't fail I know for sure
