

You & I

Pat Benatar

Are you lonely tonight?
Are you thinking about me?
Did you ever wonder how should I feel?
Close your eyes now and picture me there
You can push us aside, you can tear us apart
But it doesn't change the way that I feel
Close your eyes now and you'll see me there
By your side, so wrong, so right
We make our choices, as time goes by
But nothin' matters more than you and I
One in a million, two of a kind
You & I

It was all we could stand
it was heaven and hell
It was everything and nothing together
Maybe some things are just meant to be
What they are, so close, so far

We make our choices, as time goes by
But nothin' matters more than you and I
One in a million, two of a kind
You & I

You know I love you
I want you, but what can I do?
Can't fight this feelin'
I just can't go on without you
Baby I want you

Are you lonely tonight?
Are you thinking about me?
Did you ever wonder how should I feel?
Maybe somethings are just meant to be - yeh

We make our choices, as time goes by
But nothin' matters more than you and I
One in a million, two of a kind

We make our choices, as time goes by
But nothin' matters more than you and I
One in a million, two of a kind
You & I
We make our choices
But nothin' matters
Only You & I
