

Bad Bones

Pat Green

There's something in there somewhere
It won't let me alone
It has me by the teeth
And it feels like being stoned
I've had it for forever
It gets the best of me
Well it robs me of my happiness
And I can't get no sleep

It's got me from the inside
The fear is all I've known
It's bad bones

Got to tell you, baby
I've loved you from the start
You're a Mack truck rollin' and a hand full of thunder
And bound to break my heart
Devil in my baby
And Jesus in there too
All I want is honesty
But I can't tell the truth

Wanna break the habit
But I can't let you alone
You're bad bones

Ain't nothing like being in love
Ain't nothing like being in love with you

It's a hundred miles per hour
Picking up some speed
Everything I want from you
Is all you want from me
Hurricane is coming
Storm has just begun
Chaos all around us
And it's starting to get fun

It's always been this way, babe
You know it feels like home
Bad bones, it's bad bones

Ain't nothing like being in love
Ain't nothing like being in love with you
Ain't nothing like being in love
Ain't nothing like being in love with you
