

No Escape

Pat Travers

no escape, no escape from the blues.....
and it seems most people...
well they just want to hurt and abuse.....

wether your happy or sad,
you dont much get to choose....
cause there's no escape, no escape from the blues..

well I get so tired, of the stuff i read in the news..
yeah all the thieving and the killings,
Ive seen more than i can use...
wether your happy or sad ,
no you dont much get to choose,
cause there's no escape,no escape from the blues...

if you go out walking..better look your left and right
yeah and if your driving, lock those doors up good and tight.....

you know the crime rate keeps a rising and there's just no end in sight...

one thing that makes me happy,
is to see my little girl...
all to soon I got leave her,
daddy's work ...takes him around the world

yeah wether she's happy or sad, she dont much get to choose....
cause there's.....
no escape, no escape.... from the blues....oh
no escape, no escapefrom the blues.....
