

Stay

Pat Travers

I'm the one to let you in...
that's just my role, yeah..
and to do it so easy....as you walk through my door..

I guess you know we belong..
when the morning comes you always gone.. you slip out so easy, so know one ever gets
to keep you.....

always when you in my bed,
ghost's appear inside your head,
but you never let me in...

so why don't you stay ? why don't you stay tonight
i just can't mend you, and then send you on your way...

and watching you change, thinking why don't you stay ?

your always turning off your phone,
to make him think you sleep alone,
Is it really that easy,
so know one ever gets to keep you?
