i'll sing my heart out over you i'll get you the stars it's the least i can do we'll sleep until morning, then we'll hit the coast the only we'll argue is who loves who most hope is the last thing you wanted to hear when life turns to love and and the love turns to fear the fearing of loss and the chance of tonight if this feeling is wrong, i don't want to feel right without you i'm homesick and i'm tired yeah i got the message you wired just calling to let me know it's not too late to come home

Each breath that you take is my only excuse a life without you is a life of no use just head towards the light hold steady it steady let's go blessed be the clock when each hand moves so slow around you i'm homesick and i'm tired yeah i got the message you wired

i'm homesick and i'm tired-yeah i got the message you wired it's calling to let me know it's not too late to come home
