

Crematorium Flames

Pathology

The needle enters a decayed artery
Clouded eyes open to corpse dwelling beings and a world collapsing on itself
Creatures with knowledge of the common
Select their subject with knowledge of the grave
Chosen to bring the end
To lead the beasts to slaughter
A tattered corpse stands above, watching the maniacs tear each other apart
Rising from the grave into crematorium flames
Return from the maggots and empty
Brought back to plague the Earth
