Pathology

two thirds god one third of man enkidu - seven day - the night watchman for the lord has dreams of disembowelment upon cedar mountain the omen revealed the forest guardian quickly approaches to raise the dead and devour the living my throne of empire

twelve tablets unfold the future of the netherworld shepherds guard sheep as dark takes the light arise from the empire only to cheat death

we come with dirt for building the afterlife stand and listen the ghosts speak in tounge shepherds slaughter sheep blood runs through the stones at your feet

empire
