

Darling

Pati Yang

I wake up thirstier by the day.
So I spend time drinking liquid air
'Cause it tastes like wine but there's no kick
I wish it made me soft and weak.
Oh, it'd make it easier
To lie and cheat

If this is how it's going to end,
my darling
Let's set the house on fire and have a party
Stop fighting. Let's just dance
'Cause we didn't see coming at all,
my darling
It hit us like a laser.
And shone with blinding light
It took us by surprise.
These days I only levitate
Oh, you should so know well that empty state
Oh, I'd make up a reason, to have you wait

If this is how it's going to end,
my darling
I'll put on all my make up and try to stop crying
Stop fighting.
Let's just dance
'Cause we didn't see coming at all,
my darling
It hit us like a laser.
And shone with blinding light
And it took u by surprise
