

Finally

Patrick Nuo

Out of here and now and in your eyes
I see a million tears passin by and by
It was hart sometimes to keep our love alive
But we tried to go on
Yes we tried, we tried, we tried

I look back, in the review-mirror
A long road, of a strong believe, that...

Finally
It's you and me
Worlds are breakin' down
And no one can see
That finally
We will be
Two everlasting souls
In a wild wild sea
Finally

We never wasted time to count our scares
But they always told us , who we are
We tried to heal the wounds with all our love
Two soulmates, with one heart

I look back, in the review-mirror
A long road, of a strong believe, that...

Out of here and now and in your eyes
I see a million stars fallin' down
Tonight ...
