

The Lonely Lights

Patrick Watson

When the lights went down
I didn't want to leave you there
When the lights went down
I didn't want to leave you there
When the lights went down
I didn't want to leave you there

The snow is falling on your gentle face
I was worried that you'd be too cold
You told me that you hate to be alone
So I just didn't wanna fucking let you go
I just didn't wanna let you go

Chairs upside down
The cash is closed
Even the lights in Times Square feel alone
When it's 4 o'clock in the morning
And nobody's there

Oh I wandered around
And I waited there
Just to be sure you were no longer here
'Cause I just didn't wanna let you down

Nobody's here
Just me, you and the moon
I guess where it ends it begins
