

Do I Stand A Chance

Patti LaBelle

I asked you something
You tell me nothing
And the words
You don't say out loud

All I really wanna know is
Do I stand a chance
To be what I wanna be to you

Time's a wastin'
No more hesitatin'
Tell me what I have to do

All I really wanna know is
Do I stand a chance
To be what I really wanna be to you

Oh, and you are all I sing about
Want to live and be about
With every breath I take
You are all I care about
Want to love and be about
Oh, I do as I plan

I asked you something
You tell me nothing
And this love I feel won't let me wait
Won't let me wait

All I really wanna know is
Do I stand a chance
To be yours?
Do I stand a chance
To be your woman?

Chance together
let's take a chance together
Let's take a chance together
Be what we want to be
Oh
You, you, you, you
Oh, do I?
Oh, do I?
Oh, do I?
