

You're Mine Tonight

Patti LaBelle

I'm the kind of a lady
I always get what I want
You're looking so hot
I want what you got
Before I get thru with you
Ooh, you're gonna want me too
You don't know but

You're mine tonight
Oh, I hold you tight
Know what I'm feeling
And it feels so right
You're mine tonight
There's no use to fight
My mind's made up
And my heart is set on you
Mm-hmm...

You're picking up on my signals
You're reading me loud and clear
Smiling at me sensuously
I see you're heading my way
Attracted like a moth to a flame
You don't know but

You're mine tonight
Oh, I hold you tight
Know what I'm feeling
And it feels so right
You're mine tonight
There's no use to fight
My mind's made up
And my heart is set on you

Ooh, it was meant to be
(It was meant to be)
Ooh, it was destiny
Oh, ecstasy

Standing so close beside me, huh!
Just a heartbeat away
It was in the stars
You're here in my arms
Baby, it was you and me
Just the way I said it would be
You don't know but

You're mine tonight
Oh, I hold you tight
Know what I'm feeling
And it feels so right
My mind's made up

It was destiny
It was meant to be
Ooh, ecstasy

Oh, I hold you tight
Know what I'm feeling
My mind's made up
