

Foolishly Yours

Patti Page

Each time we part, I gave you my heart
Can't do without you
I'm so foolishly yours

Yes yours, I'll be always, so foolishly yours
Nothing can change me, I'm yours
I've tried other lips, other arms, but what for It's you I adore, so I come back for more

Some more of your kisses
And more, more, more of your lies
More of your thrills and your goodbyes

But each time we part, I leave you my heart
Can't do without you
I'm so foolishly yours
Foolishly yours
