

Capital Letter

Patti Smith

Rebellion has a heart
Breaking as the dawn
Bursting into song
Bursting into song

Bird in the hand
Another role to play
Mocking as the jay
Mocking as the jay

She's the silent one
In her soft boots
Racing through the flames
Racing through the flames

She's the silent one
In her soft boots
Trawling her bow
And her only truth

Rebellion is an arrow
Wired to the sun
Igniting everyone
Igniting everyone

Bird in the hand
Another role to play
Mocking as the jay
Mocking as the jay

She's the silent one
In her soft boots
Racing through the flames
Racing through the flames

She's the silent one
In her soft boots
Mocking as the jay
And she'll be mocking you
