

Breaking Up Somebody's Home

Patty Griffin

Lying round home alone
On a rainy night like this
Starving for your love
I'm hungry for just one kiss
Every raindrop I hear
Against my window pane
Beats so loud and clear
I swear it's speakin' your name
I got nowhere to turn
Tired of being alone
I feel like breaking up somebody's home
I know it's useless
Hanging on to you
When you belong to someone else
Can't change my feelin'
Cause after all I didn't make it myself
Last night I cried so hard
I believe I caught a chill
Can't control the vibration
My heart just won't stand still
Got nowhere to turn
I'm tired of feelin' alone
I feel like breaking up somebody's home
I know it's useless
I know it's useless
I know it's useless
I know it's useless
