

The Dragon from Lowerhill

Patty Gurdy

In Lowerhill find me brave women and men
To capture a dragon, few miles from the glen
We better now catch it and tie it well down
For dragons bring lots of misfortune to town

Oh, warriors it's time time to follow me
Follow dee-doe, follow dee-day
Oh, warriors it's time to follow me
Follow dee-doe dee-day

With 3 fearless warriors, up to the hill
We're ready to run, to fight and to kill
A risky old business it will be for sure
But greatly rewarded at the end of the tour

You know it will be a risky tour
Risky dee-doe, risky dee-day
You know it will be a risky tour
Risky dee-doe dee-day

We got the the cave, heard the snoring old beast
And before it woke, we had put on a leash
It opened its eyes and it stretched out a wing
And all of a sudden it started to sing:

No harm was meant, I'm a noble beast
Noble dee-doe, noble dee-day
No harm was meant, I'm a noble beast
Noble dee-doe dee-day

A pact then was made between humans and beast
You keep the town safe and we'll make you a feast
At every full moon you shall come down to eat
Have plenty of us thankful humans to meet!

Here's to the dragon from Lowerhill
Lower dee-doe, lower dee-day
Here's to the dragon from Lowerhill
Lower dee-doe dee-day

Sing it!
Here's to the dragon from Lowerhill
Lower dee doe, lower dee day
Here's to the dragon from Lowerhill
Lower dee-doe dee-day
