Patty Larkin

we walk in the gray mist
of a beautiful silence
of happiness
we walk in the gray mist
of what we were once
what we dream
remember this

if it's all the same
if it's all the same
why go anywhere

of a beautiful silence
of happiness
of what we were once
what we are
remember this

don't you wonder
how we got here
don't you wonder how

they built the cell tower in the old church steeple just in case
you want to talk to god

don't you wonder

don't you wonder how

we walkin the gray mist of happiness

we walkin the gray mist of what we were once

what we are

remember this
