

Comme Ci, Comme Ca

Paul Anka

I'll always say "comme ci, comme ça"
And go my way comme ci, comme ça
Since you are gone, nothing excites me
Since you're gone, no one delights me

And I go on comme ci, comme ça
Midnight till dawn comme ci, comme ça
But should we meet, that would excite me
And should you smile, that would delight me
I'd live again to love again
But until then comme ci, comme ça

(I'll always say "comme ci, comme ça"
And go my way comme ci, comme ça)
Since you are gone, nothing excites me
Since you're gone, no one delights me

(And I go on comme ci, comme ça
Midnight till dawn comme ci, comme ça)
But should we meet, that would excite me
And should you smile, oh, that would delight me
I'd live again to love again
But until then comme ci, comme ça

But should we meet, that would excite me
And should you smile, oh, that would delight me
I'd live again to love again
But until then comme ci, comme ça
