

I Remember

Paul Anka

There were birds in the trees
Singing sweet melodies
I remember

Are the hours passed away
To the break of the day
I remember

How our hearts quickly beating
And our lips softly meeting
I remember

The wind in your hair
Left it glow everywhere,
My darling
I remember the feeling

That i thought i was really
In heaven
As we kiss and caress
All i knew i was blessed
With your love
Now, the birds, yes, they're singing
And the wedding bells are ringing,
My darling
For now and forever
We'll be together / to remember
