

It Only Lasts For A Little While

Paul Anka

It only lasts for a little while
This pain I feel inside
My tears stop fallin'
I hear you callin'
And I forget about my pride

I'm only strong for a little while
Each time I say we're through
My tears stop fallin'
When you're not callin'
I wish that I could hear from you

Oh yes, I know I should forget you
And try to find a love that's true
I tell myself that I don't love you
But in my heart I know, I know that I do

It only lasts for a little while
But what am I to do?
My tears stop fallin'
I hear you callin'
I know that I'll come back to you
I know that I'll come back to you
I know that I'll come back to you...
