

Get a Bed

Paul Brandt

Seems like everybody now a days
Is trucking down to the river or down to the lake
With their moonshine, home-made wine,
Flying high and in the mood.

Ha. Maybe I'm shy or a little naive...
But there's a lot of ticks!!! (Down in them weeds)
Hoods and tailgates are great, but honey, I want more for you.
Yeah, I can think of a lot of ways better...
For you and me to get together.

We could get a house
We could get a bed
Honey, think of how nice that'd be instead
Ain't nothing wrong with the great outdoors,
But baby that's what RV's are for
I love my jacked up pick-up truck,
but I love you a million as much
And you deserve the best
We could get a bed
Do do, do do do doo

I'd be in it for good
In it for keeps
I ain't the kind of guy who loves and leaves
I appreciate nature, but I prefer a roof above
And I know it doesn't quite as cool as getting stuck
In the woods with those other dudes
Skinny-dippin', shine-sippin'
Matters of vehicular "love"
Compared to them I ain't "with it"
But if you are looking for a little commitment

We could get a house
We could get a bed
Honey, think of how nice that'd be instead
Ain't nothing wrong with the great outdoors,
But baby that's what RV's are for
I love my jacked up pick-up truck,
but I love you a million as much
And you deserve the best
We could get a bed
Do do, do do do doo

Before we take off any clothing
Consider what I'm proposing

Not to dis you or dismiss you
You're ma girl and I wanna get wit you
You are all... Oh boy, I love your truck with the blind on it And I just wanna take your finger and put a ring on it!!!
Through all kinds of weatha'
for worse or fo' betta'
On the clock tic to
All the time we are togetha'
I'm gonna love you and respect you

Treat you like you are my treasure
You'll be tha' queen of my double-wide trailer forevaaaa

We could get a house
We could get a bed
Honey, think of how nice that'd be instead
Ain't nothing wrong with the great outdoors,
But baby that's what RV's are for
I love my jacked up pick-up truck,
but I love you a million as much
And you deserve the best
We could get a bed
Do do, do do do doo

Hmm, hmm
Baby, we could get a bed
That's right
Ah baby, we could get a bed
Get it girl
