

Innocent

Paul Cauthen

'Cross the thin blue line in Carolina
Somethin' bounce and blow in some China
Just to clear the air, I'm innocent
Tossin' back, yeah, I like to toke a few
Ain't a sin to Him, it shouldn't be to you
If you believe all that, go on and get bent
'Cause I stand before you here, innocent

As we walk through fire, burning heart's desire
To choose the right thing to do
Rose like thunder when we get slammed under
And all over the damn news
Sometimes, this whole world just don't make sense
I'm innocent

I ain't in Alcatraz, I ain't in Folsom
I'm just a renegade just south of wholesome
Think what you will, my wife is proud of me
If you're a friend of mine, take me as I am
I ain't perfect, Lord, You know I never been Down on my luck, the hard times been
Innocent

As we walk through fire, burning heart's desire
To choose the right thing to do
We rose like thunder when we get slammed under
And all over the damn news
Sometimes, this world don't make sense
Sometimes, this world don't make sense
I'm innocent

I'm innocent
Innocent
Innocent

As we walk through fire, burning heart's desire
To choose the right thing to do
You rose like thunder when you get slammed under
And all over the damn news
Sometimes, this whole world just don't make sense
I'm innocent

I'm innocent
Innocent
Innocent
Innocent
Innocent