

Lately

Paul Kelly

Lately I must have changed
All day long I'm dreaming
Lately I lose my way
When I'm running some small errand
Maybe I'm lucky some people are kind
Lately you've been on my mind

It's funny what gets disregarded
Right before your eyes
It's funny how everybody else can see it
And you're the last to realise
A secret spell has caught me in the sweetest bind
Lately you've been on my mind

I had almost forgotten
The way it used to feel
From a sleep I've woken
Now the dream is real

Lately I don't take for granted
Every moment passing by
Lately I'm trapped in wonder
When you move I'm mesmerised
You have blessed me, you've made me shine
Lately you've been on my mind
