

Love Letter

Paul Kelly

Gonna sit myself down and write you a love letter
Gonna dream of the time when my life is better
This is my only prayer
This is my only plea
I wanna make a deep connection
Between you and me

Well, I see you around in the usual places
And I see you talk to and kiss lucky faces
You're every rich man's prayer
And every poor boy's dream
I wanna make a deep connection
Between you and me
Yeah, I feel a deep connection
Between you and me

Each night when I lie down in my lonely bed
I'm tossing and turning
This is my only prayer
This is my only plea
Wanna make a deep connection
Wanna make a deep connection
'Cause I feel a deep connection
Between you and me
