Parting Glass

Oh all the money that e'er I had I spent it in good company And all the harm that e'er I did Alas, it was to none but me And all I've done for want of with To memory now I can't recall So fill to me the parting glass Good night and joy be with you all

If I had money enough to spend And leisure time to sit awhile There is a fair maid in this town Who sorely doth my heart-beguiled. Her rosey cheeks and ruby lips, I own she has my heart in thrall So fill to me the parting glass. Goodnight and joy be with you all

Oh all the comrades that e'er I've had They Are sorry for my going away And all the sweethearts that e'er I've kissed Would wish me one more day to stay But since it falls unto my lot That I should rise and you should not I'll gently rise and I'll softly call Good night and joy be with you all
