

Please Myself

Paul Kelly

If you won't be letting me please you, baby
Guess I gotta please myself
If you won't be letting me please you, baby
Guess I gotta please myself

Girl, your head's so hard I don't know what to do
Girl, your head's so hard I don't know what to do
If you won't be letting me please you, baby
Guess I gotta please myself

Stones in my passway, I'm pushing to get through Stones in my passway, I'm trying to get through
If you won't be letting me please you, baby
Guess I gotta please myself

I've been so hard so long, you're breaking me in two
I've been so hard so long, you're breaking me in two
If you won't be letting me please you , baby
Guess I gotta please myself
Guess I gotta please myself
