

Please Send Me

Paul Kelly

Please send me to another world where I won't have to lose that girl with a kiss that'll kill on her lips
with a kiss that'll kill baby's gonna slip

from my life
she said it once now she'll do it twice I can't get angry I can feel no pain
with a kiss that'll kill

that knife into my back I can't do nothing with an act like that baby's cool, she's so matter of fact
with a kiss that'll kill
baby's gonna slip

And I don't need no consolation I'm so fair lies You'll get no information from my jealous eyes we're thrown together and I can't act with a fact like that

Baby's gonna slip
