

Somebody's Forgetting Somebody (Somebody's Letting Somebody Down)

Paul Kelly

Are you lonesome tonight?
Are you feeling like me?
I'll bet you're dancing tonight
Running around so carelessly
Somebody's forgetting somebody
Somebody's letting somebody down

The door to my heart
Your kiss is the key
The keys to the car
Now they're useless to me
Somebody's forgetting somebody
Somebody's letting somebody down

And every time I hear those bells
I think I'm done for
And every time they cast their spell
I think I'm done for
Nowhere to run for
Somebody's forgetting somebody
Somebody's letting somebody down
