Summer Rain

Paul Kelly

She comes and goes like summer rain I wait all day for summer rain And when she comes, I smile again She cools my brain like summer rain

She'll change your plans like summer rain I raise my arms to summer rain I lift my head and taste again
The sweet, sweet drops of summer rain

She's warm, she's fresh like summer rain She comes in a rush like summer rain And when she comes, she makes a change I wait all day for summer rain
