

Fine Line

Paul McCartney

A

There is a fine line, between recklessness and courage

D7

It's about time, you understood which road to take

F#m

It's a fine line, and your decision makes a difference

D7

Get it wrong, you'll be making a big mistake

D

Come on brother, all is forgiven

A

We all cried when you were driven away

D

Come on brother, everything is better

Bm

E7

Everything is better when you come home and stay

A+/F F#m A7/G

Whatever's more important to you

F#m

You've got to choose what you wanna do

D

Whatever's more important to be

That's the view that you've gotta see

There is a long way, between chaos and creation

If you don't say, which one of these you're gonna choose

It's a long way, and if every contradiction

Seems the same, it's a game that you're bound to lose

Come on brother, all is forgiven

We all cried when you were driven away

Come on brother, everything is better

Everything is better when you come home and stay
