Spinning on an Axis

Paul McCartney

World spinning round To the next revolution Sun going down Gonna rise up again I watch the sun go down With some sorrow And now I know it's gonna come back tomorrow Ain't no reason It has to do that It's the season of the culture bat Spinning on an axis Spinning on an axis Staring in the face Of time and space Spinning on an axis World spinning round To the next revolution Sun going down Gonna rise up again Hear me rising Rise up and sing, rise up, rise up Although I`m curious It isn't a crime I want to know if I`ll Find out in time A lot of people busy doing their thing Gonna wake up and sing Spinning on an axis Spinning on an axis We ask the question And the answer`s yes Spinning on an axis I watch the sun go down With some sorrow And now I know it's gonna come back tomorrow Ain't no reason why It has to do that It's the season of the culture bat I watch the sun go down Wonder if it`s gonna come back Certainly there`s no guarantee But I got a feeling it will be Spinning on an axis Spinning on an axis Spinning on an axis Spinning on, Spinning on an axis Spinning on an axis
