Tonight you fly, so high up

In the vanilla sky

Your life is fine, it's sweet and sour

Unbearable or great

You gotta love every hour, you must appreciate

Bdim Bm

This is your time

This is your day

You've got it all

Don't blow it away

The chef prepares a special menu

For your delight, oh my

Tonight you fly, so high up

In the vanilla sky

Melted tinbeads cast your fortune

In a glass of wine

Snail or fish, balloon or dolphin

See yourself shine

This is your time

This is your day

You've got it all

Don't blow it away

The chef prepares a special menu

For your delight, oh my

Tonight you fly, so high up

In the vanilla sky

In the vanilla, in the vanilla, in the vanilla sky

In the vanilla, in the vanilla, in the vanilla sky

In the vanilla sky
