

Never Coming Down

Paul McDonald

Blue skies, fireflies, midnights, and alibis
Let's go down to the river and wash away our sins
If you need to cut me to the bone
Go ahead and cast your stones, baby
What you're preaching - I ain't listening

Yeah, I'm going to rise up like the smoke in the sky
And I'm going to fly high over the great divide
Yeah, I'm going to live, I'm going to love, I'm going to shine
Hallelujah, what's it to you? Can I get an amen?
I ain't never coming down

Gold chains, heaven's gates
Shoot me down or shoot me straight
But come on, sugar, sugar, give it to me now

Yeah, I'm going to rise up like the smoke in the sky
And I'm going to fly high over the great divide
Yeah, I'm going to live, I'm going to love, I'm going to shine
Hallelujah, what's it to you? Can I get an amen?
I ain't never coming down

I walked through the valley of the shadow of death
Looked evil in the eyes when I had nothing left
I died that day with the devil on my chest
I awoke from the grave with Jesus on my breath

Yeah, I'm going to rise up like the smoke in the sky
And I'm going to fly high over the great divide
Yeah, I'm going to live, I'm going to love, honey, I was born t o shine
Hallelujah, what's it to you? Can I get an amen?
Hallelujah, what's it to you? Can I get an amen?
I ain't never coming down
I ain't never coming down
I ain't never coming down
