

Tell Me Something

Paul McDonald

So you're reaching out again
Is your new world finally caving in?
Is it all falling apart?
And you tell me how you've changed
You tell me how you miss me everyday
It's the same sad song you sing to me over and over again

Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know
Like your reason for letting me go
And have you ever really loved me at all?
Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I haven't heard before
'Cause your words don't mean nothing at all
Tell me something I don't already know

So you tell me you've been smoking again
I've got a feeling that you're finally losing it
I know exactly who you are
And you tell me how you miss my face
You tell me that I'm still your everything
It's the same sad song you sing to me over and over again

Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know
Like your reason for letting me go
And have you ever really loved me at all?
Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I haven't heard before
'Cause your words don't mean nothing at all
Tell me something I don't already know

Yeah, It feels like a game you're playing
And just like the seasons
You're always changing and breaking my heart
But for me it's never stopped raining
So make it stop raining.
Make it stop raining.
Make it stop raining
Make it stop raining, yeah

Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know
Like your reason for letting me go
And have you ever really loved me at all?
Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I haven't heard before
'Cause your words don't mean nothing at all

Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know

Tell me something I don't already know
Tell me something I don't already know
Like you never really loved me at all
