

Jerichos

Paul Oakley

Walking round these city walls
Seeing objects in my way
Am I blind or just a fool?
Did I hear the words you said?
Trust my heart above my eyes
To believe and never doubt
And these walls I'm staring at
Will all come tumbling down!

Bah-dup, bah, bah, bah
Bah-dup, bah, bah, bah

Surely I can find the faith
Or at least a mustard seed
For you placed it in my heart
On the day I first believed
So if I can invest it
In the One who made all things

I can walk on water
I can move a mountain
I can rise above it
I can fly on eagles' wings
And I know the One I've trusted to be faithful
Yeah, yeah!

Bah-dup, bah, bah, bah
Bah-dup, bah, bah, bah

So I face the day ahead
With a fire inside of me
Moving in the strength I have
Knowing you are with me
And I cling to the promises
Of the One who made all things

You bring water from a rock
Make a pathway through the sea
Breathe life into the dead
And you made this blind man see

And I know the One I've trusted to be faithful
And there's nothing in this world too hard for Him
Yeah, yeah!

Bah-dup, bah, bah, bah
Bah-dup, bah, bah, bah
