I'm begging of you, please, don't take my man

It all started off a long time ago
I fell in love too fast, I should've took it slow
Who'd have thought you'd break my heart and take all my dough?
Head over toe, I just couldn't say no
I met you when I was 12, on the bathroom shelf
I had a cold, and the doctor sent you over for help
He told me that I should take you, and you'd make me feel better
Me and you stuck together, through all the cold weather
Summer came soon enough, and I was left alone
Didn't say goodbye, you just ran out and was gone
I should've knew right then, that you was no good
I couldn't help but brag about you, to my boys in the hood
I told them that you addicting, smell like perfume
And you was sweeter than any pineapple in Cancoon
Time kept slippin, as the months rolled on
And I dreamed about the day that you'd be back in my home
It was hard times alone, living the most drama
Demestic chaos, was a teenager into trauma
Around October, as the weather got colder
And I was getting older, I just needed me a shoulder
To lean on, all the stress and cold weather
Had me catching a cold, no, I didn't need a sweater
I just needed something better, the doctor said it was you
I've been dreading the day our winter romance was through
Your favorite hue was purple, damn, you so thick
If we seperated too long, I get a lil sick
As the years pass by, my love been on the low
Now you hanging with rappers, all up in them videos
But they don't need you like I do
They just using you
I'm losing you
To everyone abusing you
When I ain't with you, my stomach and bodyake
Love pains are giving me more than I can take
And lately, you been hanging out west
'Cause the news in Texas said you caused a couple deaths
But I can't believe that, you just too sweet
When I'm with you, we relax all day and sleep
Seem like I'm getting lazy, and you making me fat
But the time I spend with you is worth all that
All my friends are getting jealous, 'cause I keep on obsessing with you
I lie to my wife, and told her I stopped messing with you
For some reason, I can't let you go
Every second that I'm with you, make the world move slow
I bring a proscription bottle with me everywhere I go
Hang out all night, yeah, cup of sprite and dro
But now you're all Business and you're so high price

And my lady getting Suspicious why I'm gone all night
She told me that she would leave if I use you again
So I've been hanging with your kin, known as Vicodin
Baby, it's genetic, my dad love Heroin
This addiction is strong, in the Walls [?]
You're making me depressed, I don't know what to do
And I'm amune to you, so I keep getting the flew
Everytime I walk away, you keep calling me back
I never thought a pint of Codeine would cause me a stack
But you caused more than that, I'm losing myself
And I'm losing my family and my health, I need help
