

Push Button, Automatic

Paul Weller

Just a push button automatic kind of guy
Looking at the liquid just a night after night
Chat room hard core looking to find
My wrists are aching on screen I am faking

Just a push button automatic kind of guy
Suffering in an ocean when my body stays dry
Download hard drive here on the live
In segregation the new creation

Every day I am just wasting a way to bring the world much closer
On site time into the night
Click on click on click on

Just a push button automatic kind of guy
Hiding in a fantasy to keep me alive
Mega-byte mega-shyte dot com delight
My card is burning everything I am learning

Everyday I am just wasting away
To bring the world much closer
All my life is now online
Click on click on click on

I've a push button automatic kind of life
Suffering in pollution where my body stays dry

Down load
Sidelines
Apathy fries
In segregation
Digital relation
My card is burning
Everything I am learning
My fat screen wonder
Gives me every answer
In a world much closer
With so much power
And people weaker

Ahhhhhhhhh
